BOARD STATEMENT ON PROMOTERS' COMPENSATION

Following on from its last meeting on October 1, 2018, where the matter of re-appointment of Neeraj Kanwar as Vice Chairman and Managing Director of the company was discussed, the Nominations & Remuneration Committee (NRC) of the Board of Directors of Apollo Tyres Ltd engaged with a range of institutional shareholders to take their views into consideration, and commissioned an independent report from Ernst & Young (EY) to benchmark Managing Directors' compensation structures and amounts. This twin process of consultation and external benchmarking has resulted in a significantly revised proposal from the NRC for the compensation package to renew Neeraj Kanwar's contract from May 2019. The revised proposal would result in a reduction of approximately 30% in overall compensation for both the promoters, Neeraj Kanwar and Onkar S Kanwar.

Respecting the spirit of this change, both Onkar S Kanwar and Neeraj Kanwar have voluntarily agreed to reduce their compensation for FY19 with immediate effect to fall in line with the new recommendations.

There are three substantive changes that the Board now recommends to shareholders for approval:

1. A cap on total promoter compensation is set at 7.5% of Profit Before Tax (PBT)
2. Performance-based remuneration will be targeted at approximately 70% of the total compensation
3. Annual increments for the fixed portion of promoter compensation will be in line with that of the senior professionals of the company

The NRC has further recommended, and the Board taken on record, that the 7.5% cap be further reduced over a period of time.

These adjustments take into account the feedback received from institutional shareholders, and are in line with the independent external bench-marking study. In light of this, the Board of Apollo Tyres strongly recommends that the contract is renewed under the revised terms.
